Daughters of Wisdom

Celtic Advent: A Winter Quiet Day

We create space for people. . . space to meet, space to reflect, space to talk, space simply to be. At the heart of this is hospitality rooted in the tradition and spirit of the Daughters of Wisdom. Our flame logo gives expression to these roots: the warmth of hospitality, the light of the Spirit, the spiral path to Wisdom.

Wisdom Centre

Wisdom Centre is a ministry of the Daughters of Wisdom, an international Congregation of religious women. They offer the Centre at Wisdom House to people of all faiths and none as a sanctuary of peace and tranquillity in a hectic and stressful world.

Celtic Advent: A Winter Quiet Day

Following the release of his book 'Celtic Advent – a 40 day devotional' (BRF) David Cole leads this wonderful winter quiet day. Come and discover more about Advent, Christmas, and the winter season from a Celtic Christian perspective.
In the sixth century, Celtic Christians celebrated Advent during the 40 days before Christmas, to reflect the period of Lent before Easter. The 40 days also gives a longer, more intentional preparation for Christ's coming. Celtic Advent is always November 15th to December 24th beginning at Sunset on November 14th

Possible outline of Programme:

9.30-10.00 Arrivals and coffee

10am-12.30 Exploring the tradition of Celtic Advent as a guide for our own advent journey with time for personal reflection and coffee.

12.30-1.30 Lunch

1.30-3.30 Exploring some of the characters and writings within the Celtic tradition along with spiritual and scriptural inspiration. This time will include personal reflection and optional creative activities and opportunities for refreshments.

3.30-4.00 End the day together with tea and cakes

David Cole is an author having published 'Celtic Prayers and Practices' and 'The Mystic Path of Meditation.' David endeavours to present the Christian faith from different perspectives for spiritual seekers using teachings based on the ancient 'Celtic' church, and the Christian contemplative and mystic tradition.
