Holy Thursday Passover Meal

Simple Lunch Based on the Traditional Passover Feast

We create space for people. . . space to meet, space to reflect, space to talk, space simply to be. At the heart of this is hospitality rooted in the tradition and spirit of the Daughters of Wisdom. Our flame logo gives expression to these roots: the warmth of hospitality, the light of the Spirit, the spiral path to Wisdom.

Simple Lunch Based on the Traditional Passover Feast

The two rites of Passover and Feast of Unleavened Bread may have had separate origins. The Passover is primarily a pastoral feast, offering the first-fruit of the flock; the Feast of Unleavened Bread is primarily agricultural, offering the first-fruit of the barley harvest. But they were both springtime festivals and became fused at a very early date. Once associated with an historic occurrence, that decisive event in the history of Israel's election, the deliverance out of Egypt, these rites took on an entirely new religious significance: they realised how God had saved His people. The Jewish Passover hence becomes a rehearsal for the Christian Passover: the Lamb of God: Christ is sacrificed and eaten within the framework of the Jewish Passover. Christ brings salvation to the world; and the mystical re-enactment of the redemptive act, becomes the central feature of the Christian liturgy.
