Daughters of Wisdom

The Celtic Trinity

We create space for people. . . space to meet, space to reflect, space to talk, space simply to be. At the heart of this is hospitality rooted in the tradition and spirit of the Daughters of Wisdom. Our flame logo gives expression to these roots: the warmth of hospitality, the light of the Spirit, the spiral path to Wisdom.

Wisdom Centre

Wisdom Centre is a Ministry of the Daughters of Wisdom, an international Congregation of Religious Women. We offer the Centre at Wisdom House to people of all faiths and none as a sanctuary of peace and tranquillity in a hectic and stressful world.

The Celtic Trinity

Threes were significant to the pre-Christian Celtic peoples, and so when Christianity came the Trinity fitted in easily to the transition of belief.

An ancient Celtic symbol, the Triquetra is considered one of the oldest; dating back to as early as 500 BC when it was used to symbolize the triple goddess (maiden-mother-crone). Over the centuries it has become the symbol for the Holy Trinity.

The Trinity was significantly important to the Celtic Christians, the Godhead collective was at the heart of their belief and art. With the triquetra symbol on high crosses and in the illuminated scriptures, and numerous prayers to the Trinity it is easy to see that the united Trinitarian Godhead was at the heart of their life and faith.

On this day we will look more at the Celtic expressions of the Trinity, and how we can perhaps deepen our relationship with God by putting more focus on the Trinity, rather than any one aspect of it.
