Wisdom Centre

A Ministry of the Daughters of Wisdom

We create space for people. . . space to meet, space to reflect, space to talk, space simply to be. At the heart of this is hospitality rooted in the tradition and spirit of the Daughters of Wisdom. Our flame logo gives expression to these roots: the warmth of hospitality, the light of the Spirit, the spiral path to Wisdom.

Julian of Norwich
A Day of Reflection

"Truth sees God, and wisdom contemplates God, and from these two comes a third, a holy and wonderful delight in God, who is love." — Revelations of Divine Love

Julian of Norwich (1342-c.1416) is known through her book about the spiritual life, The Revelations of Divine Love. She was probably the first woman to write a book that has survived in English.

She was an anchoress at a church in Norwich for most of her life and was a spiritual counsellor, approached by many for advice. Her society was afflicted by plague, poverty and famine but her writing is full of hope and trust in Divine goodness.

The Quiet Day will open up her story as a resource for participants to incorporate into their own prayerful reflection.

"All shall be well, and all shall be well and all manner of thing shall be well."
— Julian of Norwich
