Wisdom Centre

A Ministry of the Daughters of Wisdom

We create space for people. . . space to meet, space to reflect, space to talk, space simply to be. At the heart of this is hospitality rooted in the tradition and spirit of the Daughters of Wisdom. Our flame logo gives expression to these roots: the warmth of hospitality, the light of the Spirit, the spiral path to Wisdom.

Honouring the Earth and Creation

Workshop Day

Never has it been so important to consider how we use the earths resources. The ancient Celtic and Saxon people honoured the natural world and its animals.

The Celtic poet John O'Donohue wrote in his Beauty: The Invisible Embrace "The earth is our origin and destination. The ancient rhythms of the earth have insinuated themselves into the rhythms of the human heart. The earth is not outside us; it is within…" In the Bible we read about grapes, vines, acacia trees and olives, all Mediterranean motifs which are borrowed from Judaism, and Gentile Near Eastern culture. In Northern Europe pagan festivals adopted by the Celtic and Saxon Christians help us appreciate that the sacred imminent community is the earth community itself. For Revd Matthew Fox we must both fall in love with and develop the astuteness to defend our beloved, the earth, with all of our resources at hand. This is not a time for reflection without action; we need to resurrect common values, working with atheist Buddhist, Jew and Muslim, Christian and Pagan, who all in some way recognize the Earth as sacred.
