La Sagesse Heritage Exhibition

On Friday 30th September and Saturday 1st October 2022, from 10am - 4pm, Wisdom Centre Romsey is hosting an 'Explore Your Archives' heritage event.

A range of items selected from the archives of the Daughters of Wisdom and covering more than a hundred years of history will illustrate the work of the Daughters of Wisdom.

The exhibition will focus on the story of the Sisters in Romsey since 1891, their work on justice, peace and ecology and the life of their co-foundress Marie-Louise Trichet.

All are welcome to come along. Staff and Sisters will be on hand to serve refreshments. Admission is free.

Wisdom CENTRE

La Sagesse Heritage Exhibition

Have you ever wondered who the Daughters of Wisdom are, or perhaps you were once a pupil at La Sagesse Convent School in Romsey?

Our Heritage exhibition is being held in Wisdom Centre Romsey; this building once housed our former junior school. The exhibition will include photographs, records, artefacts and more on the following themes:

- The origins of the Daughters of Wisdom in eighteenth century France.
- The Daughters of Wisdom in Romsey from 1891 until the present day, with a focus on local history.
- The work of the Daughters of Wisdom in schools, orphanages, hospitals, care homes and elsewhere, reflecting their commitments to helping the poor and the vulnerable in society.
- The Sisters' commitments to peace, justice and ecology.
- The story of Marie-Louise Trichet - the co-foundress of the Daughters of Wisdom in the early eighteenth century.

Wisdom Centre is set in beautiful gardens, including a Labyrinth, which you are welcome to visit at any time.

The building, formerly La Sagesse Junior School has been converted into a Spirituality Centre and venue. Our today rooms include a spacious Conference/ Meeting Room, Quiet Room, Sitting Room and a Creative Room. Each space offers something to help visitors relax and make the most of their time with us.
