Wisdom Centre

A Ministry of the Daughters of Wisdom

We create space for people. . . space to meet, space to reflect, space to talk, space simply to be. At the heart of this is hospitality rooted in the tradition and spirit of the Daughters of Wisdom. Our flame logo gives expression to these roots: the warmth of hospitality, the light of the Spirit, the spiral path to Wisdom.

Wisdom CENTRE

Advent and Christmas, Genesis to Revelation

Who is the child in the Manger? We often think of Jesus only in terms of his earthly life. Jesus taught that stories about his birth and ministry were prophesied throughout the Old Testament. Isaiah the prophet foretold the miraculous birth of the Son of the Most High, a child who will play a significant role in God's purposes for his people. Later, an angel of the Lord appeared to Joseph in a second foretelling of the divine birth already spoken about by Isaiah. 'The virgin will conceive and give birth to a son, and they will call him Immanuel' (God with us). The Christmas story continues with the Magi, who were guided to the Holy Infant by a star. The infant Jesus attracted the attention of King Herod, so an angel once again spoke to Joseph, telling him to flee with the Holy Family to the safety of Egypt, with the messenger later informing Joseph when it was safe to return. The New Testament Advent and Christmas narratives continue in Revelation 12, which tells the prophetic story of Jesus' birth from a truly cosmic rather than earthly perspective.
